Leadership Biographies

Barry Maas, President

Bachelor of Science Degree, Business Administration with an Accountancy Option, California State University, Fresno. Barry has an accounting background working in a law firm for over ten years as the office manager with a focus on all aspects of the preparation of the financials and analysis and budget preparation. Barry started ASI in 2001 as he saw a need for a local TPA administering high deductible health plans and COBRA administration.

Christina O. Castro, Vice President

Christina is a certified COBRA administrator, a Registered Health Underwriter and has her certification in Long Term Care. She has been in the Third Party Administration business for over twenty-eight years and previously worked as a consultant for a local broker's office. Christina is a past President of the Central California Association of Health Underwriters and is a member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefits, the Employee Benefit Institute of American and served on the Board of Directors for the California Department of Insurance Education Committee. Christina has written COBRA Administrative procedures for employers and provides seminars throughout California on COBRA Compliance. She currently has two continued education courses approved and filed with the California Department of Insurance.

Section 132 Administration

About Section 132 Plans

Tax-free commuter benefits, also known as Qualified Transportation Accounts (QTAs), are employer provided voluntary benefit programs that allow employees to reduce their monthly commuting expenses for transit, vanpooling and work-related parking costs. The benefit is a federal tax benefit authorized under the Internal Revenue Code Section 132\(a\), Qualified Transportation Accounts. Monies used for these eligible expenses are excludable from gross income subject to federal taxes. If the participant has both a parking account and a transit account, each account is entirely separate, and funds cannot be transferred from one to the other. Transit and/or parking benefits are limited to employee expenses only: reimbursement is not allowed for spouse or dependent transit or parking expenses.
